

Name to Formula

The name of a chemical compound contains all the necessary information for determining the formula. Use the zero sum rule or criss-cross rule to do this.

e.g. write the formula for the following:

1) aluminum fluoride

2) lead(II)phosphide

3) copper(II)chloride

4)chromium(VI)thiosulphate